

11/11/2011

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

Case No. 11-cv-00001

Page 1

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

Case No. 11-cv-00001

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

■

0

■

2. The defendants agree to hire and/or maintain the following qualified and competent

a. (2) RN's on first shift and (1) LPN on second shift

b. (1) RN on second shift and (1) LPN on first shift

7. The parties agree that the relief agreed upon here is narrowly drawn to address the specific concerns of the parties and is not intended to be a general statement of principle or a broad declaration of intent.

The parties agree that the relief agreed upon here is narrowly drawn to address the specific concerns of the parties and is not intended to be a general statement of principle or a broad declaration of intent.

The parties agree that the relief agreed upon here is narrowly drawn to address the specific concerns of the parties and is not intended to be a general statement of principle or a broad declaration of intent.

The parties agree that the relief agreed upon here is narrowly drawn to address the specific concerns of the parties and is not intended to be a general statement of principle or a broad declaration of intent.

The parties agree that the relief agreed upon here is narrowly drawn to address the specific concerns of the parties and is not intended to be a general statement of principle or a broad declaration of intent.

The parties agree that the relief agreed upon here is narrowly drawn to address the specific concerns of the parties and is not intended to be a general statement of principle or a broad declaration of intent.

The parties agree that the relief agreed upon here is narrowly drawn to address the specific concerns of the parties and is not intended to be a general statement of principle or a broad declaration of intent.

The parties agree that the relief agreed upon here is narrowly drawn to address the specific concerns of the parties and is not intended to be a general statement of principle or a broad declaration of intent.

Done this _____

4y 4 5 71 () 228, 2003.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE