DECLARATION

STATE OF LOUISIANA)
PARISH OF ORLEANS)

I, Jimmie Jenkins, do hereby declare:

1. I am a pre-trial detainee currently incarcerated on the tenth floor of the House of Detention in Orleans Parish Prison.
2. I am locked in my cell for twenty-three hours a day, but the locks pop so people can get out when the guards aren't looking.
3. Before I was arrested, I was taking prescription medication for my bipolar disorder. I have not gotten my medication here in OPP.
4. It's hard without my medicine in here and not being able to talk to a counselor or social worker. Plus, there are fights all the time. I came over to the psych tier in order to get ~~some help after a guy stabbed me in Old Parish Prison. I have been hit here too and~~ seen lots of other fights. I just got punched a couple weeks ago when a guy was trying to

I, Greg Journee, do hereby declare:

1. I am a pre-trial detainee currently incarcerated on the seventh floor of the House of Detention in Orleans parish Prison.
2. Before I got to HOD, I was in Old Parish Prison. There, I had to move because of threats I was getting. When the warden finally moved me he said, "you know this is a jail facility. I can't make sure that nothing happens to you."

3. When I moved to HOD I was injured by a bunch of guys right after I got on the tier. Some of
