Second, the Policy does not list potential EOCs at NMMC hospital facility like West Point

...with NMMC's Rules and Attached to the Policy.

Third, although the Policy seemingly stipulates that the liability of a policyholder is limited to the amount of the EOC at the NMMC hospital facility, it does not state that the policyholder is not responsible for payment of the EOC at the NMMC hospital facility. The policyholder is not responsible for payment of the EOC at the NMMC hospital facility. The policyholder is not responsible for payment of the EOC at the NMMC hospital facility.

The language of the Policy is therefore not clear and is not consistent with the policyholder's understanding of the policy. The language of the Policy is not clear and is not consistent with the policyholder's understanding of the policy.

Policyholder's Understanding of the Policy

West Point Policyholder's understanding of the Policy is that the policyholder is not responsible for payment of the EOC at the NMMC hospital facility. The policyholder is not responsible for payment of the EOC at the NMMC hospital facility.

...obtain the Policy or any billing or collections policy when she asked the nurse clerk at West Point the paper saying nothing but the bill.

Furthermore, while the Policy stipulates that a NMMC hospital facility will be West Point's only provider of the Policy in question and, regardless of whether the hospital was knowledgeable of the policyholder's status at the time of the hospital admission, the hospital is not responsible for payment of the EOC at the NMMC hospital facility.

The Hospital's failure to include all required information in the Policy and make the Policy widely publicly available not only violates the above regulations, but also has a substantial detrimental effect on persons of limited financial means. Individuals cannot be expected to take advantage of a financial assistance program of which they have no knowledge.
